Weight Loss

Lost 15 lb. Blood sugar was 184, now 142. — Leigh 77, Retired

Obviously my Cleanse is not finished yet. So far it feels life changing on the physical, mental, and emotional and spiritual levels. They feel all one. My body has changed-skin tone, weight loss, energy levels. I feel a lot lighter on every level. I feel very touched by the whole experience. I really appreciate the amount of work and guidance invested in this program and the deep level of synthesisation- it's many lifetimes of work!! — Meredith 37, Professor

First my physical health is off the charts. 13 lbs weight loss. Hair color darker, facial hair darker. My taste is improved with my sense of smell and hearing are at the best in my life. Sex life again & great! Emotional I think was the most radical change. I feel energy from everything, objects, people and nature. I see Love like never before. I can feel it finally reaching my true inner-core I didn't know I even had. Spiritual health grew as I felt God has reentered my soul. When I was young I Loved God and now I feel like I'm back to that same level. — Bily,54,Handyman

Physical: My hair has darkened (doesn't look gray anymore). I have lost weight (fat) on my belly and legs. My face is thinner, more lighted, and less wrinkled. Arthritic, knobby fingers have noticeably straightened and my painfully sore and swollen knee is almost completely better. Fingernails are strong. Emotional: My energy is good and I am less anxious and worried – more in the present; I feel much more confident of my own worth, integrity, and loving nature. Maybe I am learning no to stuff myself with food (as replacement for love). Spiritual: I have been able to define better and express what I believe spiritually. That the essence (and concepts) of God, Buddha, Krishna is within me, and let go of some of my resistance to the terms God, angels, etc., as exterior images or concepts. If you want to be healed and transformed physically, emotionally, spiritually come to Angel Farms. — Marlys, 72, Architect

I love myself totally! Thank You Cindy!! I feel light and clean and full of love and joy. My sinuses which have ached for years are no longer tender. I am shrinking! Weight is melting off of me. My left hip is so much better! My lower back is no longer in pain! It not longer hurts my right hand to hold a pen and write! I feel my body regenerating and getting younger. Thank you Cindy and the entire staff! You are all AWESOME! The Cleanse it the best thing a person can do for themselves and their health. It heals spiritual and emotional issues while it rids the body of toxins. parasites, and negative thought forms which creates a whole new level of joy and well-being. — Karen- Marriage & Family Therapist

My face looks much less strained, is rested. Comments of I look like I had a face lift. Weight loss. Although physically I have had struggles with dizziness and nausea which allowed me to work through the fear of "ill health" that have been "my story" I now KNOW that I am on my way to vibrant and vibrationally coherent health. I can easily choose to bring myself into the present moment when I allow/become the silent witness and catch my thoughts that are not productive for me. Change my thought= Change my World.

Where I am God is

Where God is I am

My vessel is now clean so that I may now be an Angel with Wings, Mahalo Nui

You are worth it! KNOW the money will come!

From Larry's session: relaxing and wonderful. Larry definitely is offering his gift of healing love in these sessions.

From Cindy's session: a great rebirth to a Perfect me! Excellent. Thank you both for sharing your passion!

Mary Jane, WA, 59

As of today my weight is down 18 lb.'s – but my body has shrunk 4 dress sizes. I am walking with 1 crutch not 2, but I am ready to get a cane. My left knee has loosened up and is more flexible. The swelling in my feet and ankles is gone. The "tender to the touch" spot on my left leg is now gone; my right heel bone spur is gone. I've rid my intestines of worms; and pockets of feces; plaque; pockets and lots of ropes; balls of wax. My toes have relaxed and are spreading out again – giving my body SOLID footing to stand without wobbling. The burning feet and numbness in them and my fingertips has pretty much reversed itself. And the crap that has been living inside was absolutely disgusting! Leave all fears at home. Go with an open heart and open mind and allow the entire "experience" of Angel Farms to encompass all of your Focus and Love...and let their love give you the avenue to heal yourself.

PAIN LOSS

I give God the glory and thanks for his healing and love. I thank Cindy for her wisdom, help and loving ways. I feel great now. I had 14 parasites I lost. My tongue fungus is almost gone. I lost 8 pounds and all my pain and fatigue. My skin looks great and almost all of my wrinkles are gone. — Donna 56, Teacher

I came with the belief that I would be reset. On the 9th day of the Cleanse I felt gaggy, but my tiredness was gone, yet I am still a bit out of balance. I feel emotionally happy with what has happened to me so far.

1. My hair is darker.
2. My cheeks are fuller with much less wrinkles
1. Everyone mentions that I look 20 years younger.
2. My neck has full range of motion.
3. My right shoulder only has minor pain with I move it, and no pain when I sit.
4. My thighs are almost pain free when I walk uphill and no pain just sitting.
5. My back feels good right now, but I still have “the wiggles”
6. My back is straight as I lift my shoulders
7. My nose doesn’t run as much
8. I haven’t cleared my throat
9. ___rings in my eyes are much smaller
10. The twitch on my right side of face is less.

— Muff 88, Reflexologist/Seminar Leader

I have more appreciation, by far, for my body. I’ve had a visceral education on the gut and the surrounding organs. I’m in awe with my body. Who could have created it other than God? Yet I grew myself. Seems like God and I are one and the same! The Cleanse was very difficult for me. I had my share of physical duress. I had more to clean out than I thought. Now I have more energy and clarity. I am more aware of my emotions, my judgments and how they effect my body. I feel more in charge of choosing love over fear. I am aware that loving myself can short circuit all the habits in my life that cause pain to myself and others. My skin has more color and elasticity. My eyes are brighter. My hair is thicker and darker. I have no pain. Angel Farms will transform your self-image. We tend to think of ourselves as what we did, what we are going to do, and what the outside of the body looks like. Our awareness of the inside of our body only comes about through pain when something isn’t working right. Angel Farms will not only heal the pain but make you understand who you really are. I am in awe of the inside of my body. It’s me as much as the rest. Larry made me feel relaxed, peaceful and safe. He is so compassionate. His energy is gentle and loving but there is so much of it! Just being around Larry makes you feel calm. He is a nurturer. Cindy brought me back to my childhood. I was emotional. She reminded me that I choose my parents. Then she asked me what specific qualities in each, was I drawn to. This helped me heal the anger I had towards my father. I felt grateful for what he gave me and could forgive him for his mistakes. Through her work with my early childhood she gave me back my feeling of wholeness. Through this I was able to reclaim my self-love, importance and power.

I feel 10 years younger, my energy level is back. My lungs can breathe again. When I first came here I was congested all the time, coughing and wheezing in my lungs. Now I’m not coughing up anything, my lungs are clear and I can smell through my sinuses again. My right leg had very large varicose veins popping out a lot. Now those veins are no longer protruding out. The pain in my leg is gone and my legs are returning back to normal. My right shoulder had a torn rotator cuff and bone spur. I was in pain when I came here. I’m curious...I have no more pain. The shoulder has repaired it’s self. My neck was so locked up, that I had constant pain. Now the pain is gone and I have full range of motion pain free. It’s as if the weight of the world has been lifted from me. Come and discover your own miracle. At first I didn’t believe that major change could happen in just 10 days. — Ron, 55, Massage Therapist

My body feels way lighter, not so tight. Feels much looser. My back pain is getting better. Memory is getting better. Not so worried, feel free and lighter. Good for your body, mind. Learn how to take care of yourself. How to love yourself and make you happy. Larry has powerful energy. Very relaxing. I enjoyed it. Cindy was always helpful. I felt comfortable and relaxing around her.

Physical: My hair has darkened (doesn’t look gray anymore). I have lost weight (fat) on my belly and legs. My face is thinner, more lighted, and less wrinkled. Arthritic, knobby fingers have noticeably straightened and my painfully sore and swollen knee is almost completely better. Fingernails are strong. My physical health feels much improved. I can see the bones around my feet and ankles – I am not carrying as much swelling in my hands, arms, legs and back. I have “phumped” up facially so that my skin is tighter, my chin is more defined (jawline) and wrinkles less obvious. I came with regular pain in my right hip – this has eased after passing a long worm on my right side of the colon. I want to continue to lose weight. I have seen the beginning of that process since the kidney and liver cleanse. I am confident that if I do the maintenance properly this will continue. Emotionally I have done a lot of clearing, some crying, and lots of journaling. I have found it more possible to forgive some key people in my life and to let go of some traumatic events. I am clearer and more self-aware and more confident about recognizing my own needs and purpose. Less people-pleasing. Spiritually I found some of the language challenging sometimes but as I relaxed into the description of God is Love that sat much more easily. I am long term student of the Rihwan School, Diamond Approach and so much of the principles and perspectives are echoed in that approach. Oneness, dissolving the attachment to Ego, knowing oneself as Being which is Love – it’s a different language but the message is in significant ways the same. I’ve appreciated the emphasis on spiritual teaching throughout. It matches my sense of purpose in this life – to be the cleanest window for God/True Nature to experience itself. I am committed to manifesting whatever I am called to do, however I am called to Be. Thy will is my will. This is a truly transformative process. It is professionally, sensitively and supportively held by a team of dedicated open-hearted “technicians” led by a phenomenological Being, Cindy Sellers, She is a reservoir of deep knowledge gained over many years’ experience – and she truly “walks her talk”. She is generous, loving, and insightful. Do it.

Lynne, 63, Company Director, Education Consultant, United Kingdom

Due to knee injuries and arthritis inflammation and pain in the bottoms of my feet I have not been able to walk for 2 years. On the second day of the Cleanse I walked almost a mile. This was an amazing miracle. By the 10th day the red-purple discoloration in my knuckles was gone. I have known for a loooong time that I need to love and forgive myself but I have not been able to have the feeling of love for myself and others consistently. I had moments of it but was not able to feel it and to feel that love would stay. This program has given me the experience of loving kindness and many tools and resources so that there is no reason for me not to follow through and integrate what I have learned. I really like the comprehensive presentation. Now I have the practical tips on how to feed myself at home. Thank you Anthony for cooking class and your generosity to share cooking tips throughout the training. You answered to all my questions whenever I asked with such good will J You are a great teacher and beautiful being. Elena’s Massage was the most tender, gentle, loving massage I have ever experienced. It was exactly what my body and mind needed. I felt like a baby. Soothing TLC. Deeply caressed. Thank you Elena for your healing touch J Exciting new miracle on the last day. I walked up and down the stairs at Angel Farms 3 times without struggling and holding the railing like I normally had. Do it J I learned so much about myself – the blockages in my thinking and stuck emotions showed up in my body. And they are cleared so that if I get into judgment I can let it go. You will have many miracles and learn a lot about yourself. J

After receiving the life lessons & Cleanse, I feel rejuvenated, reborn and ready to take back my life. With my back pain eradicated, I am feeling the best I’ve felt in over seven years. Emotionally I am strong and know that a lot of things are going to change in a positive fashion in my life. Spiritually, I have been awakened, and ready to share my love of God and light with others. Thank you Cindy & Larry – you have truly made me a “10”! And a huge thanks to the wonderful and caring staff at Angel Farms. You will all be in my heart and in my prayers for all time. Go – Go now, do it for yourself. It’s the best money you’ll spend.

Hanna, 39, Business Owner, ME

Clear skin, eyes. No pain. No more Anger, stress or Anxiety. Feel better than ever before in My life. It’s the best thing you could ever give yourself. It’s worth every penny and everybody is worth it.

Sol, 41, Paraglider instructor, Hawaii

WOW! Physically I have lost 25 pounds and feel renewed! Emotionally, I am in a better place than I have ever been, spiritually I have been saved. I have found tools and ways to forgive, forget, not worry, and live in the “NOW”. The greatest gift I could give myself is Angel Farms.”

Steve, Sales Rep, Hawai'i

Physically I feel like I have the energy of a 15-year-old. No aches in my back and my joints. My skin feels so much better, and my whole inside feels like I have a new body of cleaned parts. Emotionally I feel grounded and calm. I don't have the anger at everything that disappointed me in my everyday life. If I do get angry, it goes right away and I don't hang on to it. Spiritually, I feel so much more in touch with the world in a positive light, and with myself.

Ron, Fisherman, California

HEADACHES

This is the miracle... My skin has never been better but its not a big deal to me anymore because I love myself regardless! Also. I feel more energy, less headaches, better tummy, more peace, greater purpose. The greatest capacity to love, and as much determination and will as ever, such a blessing to be here. "It is clean, safe, private and it will change your life." You will meet incredible people and Angel Farms team is professional, understanding and kind. Larry's session was peaceful, relaxing and informative. He explained everything thoroughly before he began. I felt incredibly relaxed and safe. Thank You so much Larry for your healing energy and word of encouragement! Cindy took me back to when I truly Was and showed me I can be that way always. That I still am and always was, deeply connected. It's so freaking simple. I learned so much from you Cindy (about the secret of "nothing"). And the beautiful art of "Just Be". Thank You from the bottom of my huge heart. I Love You! — Abby, 18, Student Subsequent to being diagnosed with Fibromyalgia fifteen years ago, there has been no day without pain in the muscles of my body, resulting in headaches or migraines, inability to sleep soundly or through the night, high level of anxiety, constant irritability and depression. By the second day of the Cleanse, I was sleeping soundly through the night, waking up energetic and without pain. I began spending my mornings swimming instead of willing my body to force itself up out of bed. By the completion of the Cleanse the headaches dissipated and there has not been any hint of anxiety, fear, irritability, or depression. I stopped smoking (after 34 years), gave up coffee and Diet Cokes which I used to drink in place of water. This is particularly impressive since these have been the staples of my morning and daily regiment for many years. NOW that the body is no longer subjected to constant pain, my mind is able to rationalize, refocus and reprioritize. Circumstances or events that used to create anxiety or irritability no longer seem important or worthy of anger. I have a sense of calm and peace, no longer needing to overanalyze, defend, dwell upon or beat an issue senseless. I can now choose how and when to react with greater clarity. I can now accept that it sometimes be to be loving that it is to be right (this would not have been in the realm of possibility before the Cleanse). I can now let go and choose to be happy! How does one go from feeling unworthy, unimportant and insignificant to feeling empowered, brilliant and deeply loved in ten days? To leave the guilt, shame, regrets and all other entrapments where they belong in the past and to reconnect myself as a Child of God, a wondrous and unique miracle with infinite choices, capabilities and possibilities was huge for me. Understanding that it is always okay to forgive myself and the knowledge that I will never walk alone will forever be my source of comfort and strength. Instead of looking at my life and asking "why me", I can now envision the promises of joy, peace, forgiveness but most of all LOVE and say "that is me.

Ann Marie (CA Banker)

For me, the pressure in my body began around 12 years ago...frequent headaches, and tight back muscles. I read, researched, visited, and participated in more than 40 healing sessions over the past decade.. no gain-just pain. By the 9th day of this Cleanse, the pressure had finally subsided... and I feel more alive than I have ever felt before! Thank you-Thank you You are happy, healthy, and holy-and if you are not feeling all three, then NOW would be a good time to do the Cleanse!

CANCER

I feel so much better physically and especially emotionally. My spiritual health has improved more than I ever thought possible. The lymph node that had cancer in it has gone down in half. I will continue to do my maintenance at home and get rid of it. Cindy is a wonderful teacher.

Dawn (UT GIS Specialist)

I finally just feel good in my body. Most of inflammation I was having is gone. The couple of sun damaged (pre-cancerous) spots on my head and left arm are finally healing. I look 10 years younger and my face is pink like I was in the sun. I had a factor 5 blood clotting problem for which I have been taking supplements to control and I am holding for a miracle that this also is no longer an issue. Emotionally: I have never felt so joyful and relaxed. Spiritually: the wonderful God connection I already had has been maxed out and I am actually feeling unshakable. The amount of healing that is available here is far and away greater than you can imagine. Let your heart guide you here and allow yourself the blessing of radical health.

CHOLESTEROL

What comes to me is the saying "Random Acts of Kindness." For me though, it is random acts of smiling. No kidding! My emotional feels in tune to the Universe, us, the past and in the future. Spiritually. Well, my constant smiling speaks to that. I realize how silly I can be. I am very grateful and much more in tune with my own holiness. Physically, according to the doctors, my cholesterol is just fine. I am absolutely amazed at how much cholesterol came out of my system and plaque. I feel much more vital and really present and excited by loving possibilities. Specifically, my hands had probably (however, I have never and will never own it) arthritis with pain and swelling and some limited finger movements. They are much better and I can actually flatten my hand for the first time in years. My sense of smell is also coming back in after years of limited sense of smell. ♥ Just do it! ♥ This will be the BEST gift you could EVER give yourself.

Shane, 64, Washington

Eyes – clear, cholesterol rings decreased. Faced lifted – no jowls, look 10-15 years younger. Less swelling whole body, especially knees. Lost fat on back. More easily able to rise above drama, big picture. Great sense of humor. No desire to overeat. No sugar cravings. Able to wake up without coffee; still think about it. You'll add 30 years to your life.

Anne, 60, Hawaii

I just have never done a Cleanse in my whole life. As I settled down I could feel all my anxieties come alive. I prayed and fell asleep. When I woke up I realized I am alive. As each day passed I felt better and better. I know I will be completely cured. My allergies are completely gone!! Psoriasis is nearly gone and that is a Miracle!! Parasites from 30 years, gone. I had diabetes for two years and is now gone. My heart attacks and anxiety of six years is gone. High cholesterol I had for two years is gone. (It dropped to 200 points in the 10 days! It was 345!) Fear from 61 years is gone! My thyroid that was out of balance 40 years cured. I was on 11 medicines and now I am on NONE!! I feel 45 and look it! My energy is back and it is never too late to regenerate. Grief and anger gone, eyesight still working on it. Weight loss 11 lbs. Hair growing back in. Rheumatoid Arthritis of 4 years gone! And I haven't even begun to exercise. It is all good and life is beautiful!!"

Kanela, Native Hawaiian, Retired, Hawai'i

DIABETES

The first thing I noticed were my eyes. I forgot my glasses and was sending and connecting a cell phone text and reading all those tiny letters and doing better than with my glasses. In my before photo was amazed at my droopy left eye after a stroke, It has been corrected. Everyone says that now the height of my eyebrows matches. The mirror has not caught up with the changes yet, I guess we are the last to know! Also my midriff is leaner. This morning I actually bent my knees some to put on my shoes, I never do normally. Blood Glucose from type II diabetes is down 50DB TO 162. While eating white rice and bananas it soared up to 322 one night but cayenne helped bring it down. Biggest of all, my attitude change= new softened edges.

Nancy, retired, CA, 69

My diabetes is in remission now, as my fasting glucose is 91-109. Prostate issues are also gone now.

RETURN OF YOUTH

I give God the glory and thanks for his healing and love. I thank Cindy for her wisdom, help and loving ways. I feel great now. I had 14 parasites I lost. My tongue fungus is almost gone. I lost 8 pounds and all my pain and fatigue. My skin looks great and almost all of my wrinkles are gone. — Donna 56, Teacher

Physically I feel like 10 years younger. Emotional I feel really good about myself. Spiritual health got more stronger. —Pete, 57, Iron-worker

Knowing I have eliminated bugs, worms, etc. I have integrated more than ever mind-body-spirit. I have set the table for my prostate to heal. My skin is healthier. My wife looks younger and is very beautiful after her cleanse. I have benefited in my mind, the understanding of my body. Something everyone should do as we grow. Become middle aged for tuning up or solving a health issue. Best 10 day investment I have ever made. 9

Peter, 62, Maryland

Day 4 was my transformation. I had to say that as the day went on it got better and better. My day had miracles. Miracle #1: Session with Cindy. Miracle#2: My first traditional sweat lodge. Miracle#3: It was new moon. All this when I felt like the darkness was behind me. Physically I feel lighter, eyes got lighter, and face got lifted and brighter. Spiritually I see the new perception of things. I can feel the guidance of the Great Spirit when I need it. Emotionally I feel that I got my will again. There are other miracles in all 3 aspects. Physically I feel I don't have to stuff myself. I don't feel as hungry as I used to or that habit of always reaching for something. My digestion and metabolism is working faster and makes me feel better. My skin all over the body feels younger, smoother and more vibrant. The red blemishes on my face underneath my eyes went away. Finger nails cleared up. I don't have the physical and mental craving for alcohol which I have been using for over 20 years and abusing for the last decade. My muscles are getting more defined and I found myself smiling more. Emotionally I feel more conscious of happiness and catching myself when negative emotions try to get me out of my center. So I just wobble, center myself back and LET THINGS GO because they are not real, only assumptions, it's only my perception of things. I am the one who is in control of my emotions. Spiritually I know to listen to my thoughts (the deep voice inside us all), to pay attention to my feelings how things make me feel, good or bad, to feel my experiences. This is a great tool for guidance. It will change your perception on how you look at life. It will get rid of your habits (alcohol, smoking, drugs, etc.). It will make you grow spiritually. I see, walk and feel through our Creator's eyes. It will transform your eyes, face, body, nails, hair will shine. It Will Save Your Life!

Slavi 36, Sailor, Self-employed. California

So many wonderful changes! First, I am more me! Not nearly as scattered as before. Before I came in to do the Cleanse, my asthma was in full force. I had very heavy and labored breathing. On day 3, I put the machine I would have to use 2 or 3 times a day, away! I am now breathing regularly thru my nose. I have not had to use it again! I see better with much improved vision. Spiritually, I am more at peace and am looking forward to my daily journey and my co creation. I now am very conscious of my spoken words and thoughts and my relationships. I have lost weight and feel and look way younger!

Linda-Hawaii-personal assistant

Physically I feel very young, emotionally I am full of gratitude and new potentiality. Spiritually I feel a new path is opened to go deeper into presence, into the now. If you have chosen Angel Farms cleanse, you have made the most important decision of your new life.

George, Songwriter, California

I feel much better physically and my emotions are higher than Ever. I feel and look younger. Turning point in my life. Spiritually I have grown and now realize the facts of love in life. Life is Love.

John (CO Retired)

My intention started quite vain, younger looking skin, lose a few pounds, etc. Day ten of the Cleanse I find myself aligned with my higher self, my body tuned up from the inside out, my heart at peace and (my vanity put aside) my body light and slim. I thank my body, my organs, every night for giving me a sweet body, I thank Cindy, Larry, and Shara for reminding me of my Source, my creative power and giving me the opportunity to begin my life anew. We all need this, Thank you Thank you!

Nancy (CA)

I feel ten years younger, I haven't felt this healthy since my 20's. Phenomenal transformation of health. We are systematically manipulated not to realize we are the "One". Once people see the bars they know they are in prison and what follows is the desire to be free.
